Pig head (2017.1.13-2017.1.17)
Acrylic paint on blackpaper
A4*4

Animal farm? Veganism? Police?

Is image based on fact? Or is every image the same?

I'm presenting a bloody pig head four times, the pig is a very interesting symbol.

For me, this set is about a love story. Look at the pink, and the red, aren't those lovely?

The base shape of these pig heads are from stencils, same mode, but as i mix the paint, the randomness of the brush strokes, make each one of them a little bit different.

The details are added by drawing. My eyes traced each pixel on my screen, the processing of interacting the generated image with a human touch.
